What Should I Do? is the cornerstone question for a multitude of ethical considerations - and the basis for this text.

How we function when ethical challenges arrive in our "real" lives is the framework for Andrew Ghillyer's Business Ethics Now.

This application-based text takes the theory of business ethics and applies it to the realistic scenarios that students may encounter at all stages of their careers.

McGraw-Hill Connect® is a course management and adaptive learning solution that enhances your unique voice and teaching style. As your partner, we're committed to helping you achieve your course goals and unlock student potential. That's why we've made meaningful updates to this edition.

New In Connect:

SmartBook® 2.0 – Our adaptive reading experience has been made more personal, accessible, productive, and mobile.

Application-Based Activities – These highly interactive, automatically graded exercises provide students a safe space to practice using problem-solving skills to apply their knowledge to realistic scenarios.

Writing Assignment – This assignment type delivers a learning experience that helps students improve their written communication skills and conceptual understanding. As an instructor, you can assign, monitor, grade, and provide feedback on writing more efficiently.

Video Cases / Manager's Hot Seat Videos – These videos allow students to assume the role of a manager as they immerse themselves in video-based scenarios. These videos enable students to see how managers in realistic situations deal with employees and complex issues. Select videos include text-specific questions to ensure relevancy to the specific learning objectives.

Self-Assessment Library – These exercises ask students to rate themselves on how they would personally respond to a topic, and in return they are provided feedback to help build self-awareness. There are 25 different topics in the library.
